Australian Indian Sports, Educational and Cultural Society

I am delighted to offer my best wishes to everyone taking part in the COVID-19 Virtual Round Table organised by the Australian Indian Sports, Educational and Cultural Society (AISECS).

I commend members of AISECS for their compassion, and the assistance they are providing to vulnerable people, including international students, in New South Wales during the global COVID-19 pandemic.

The NSW Government appreciates the many achievements of Indian Australians and thanks them for their commitment to social cohesion and community harmony.

I wish you a successful round table and all the very best in these difficult times.
